

AROUND ABOUT TOWN

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

W. W. Davis of Lamar spent Sunday in town.

W. G. Nelson of Mullins was in town this week.

Mrs. W. W. Jordan is visiting relatives in Wadesboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKenzie of Rowland were among the visitors in the city Sunday.

Mr. H. G. Jackson who has been attending school at Orum is at home on a vacation.

Contractor Beatty who has the contract for the street paving is putting down some neat and substantial walks around the hand-some residence of Mr. J. W. Hamer on East Main street.

Invitations have been issued by the Dillon Cotillion Club to the annual Easter Ball which will be given at the Commercial Club room on the evening of the fifteenth. Music will be furnished by the Boston Italian Band.

There will be preaching at Dunbarton on next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. After the services a congregational meeting will be held for the purpose of securing a permanent pastor. All members of the church are urged to be present.

The Civic League meets on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Town Hall and a full attendance is earnestly requested. There were thirty six members at the last meeting and it is hoped that at this meeting that number will be equalled or exceeded. The officers and executive committee have determined with the help of the ladies of the town to make this year a great era in the history of the Civic League.

Council has granted the N. & S. C. road a right-of-way down Second avenue from the cotton mills to Main street and a petition has been circulated and liberally signed pledging the railroad a warehouse site on the block opposite E. T. Elliott's stables. If the money cannot be raised by private subscription the signers of the petition have agreed to vote for a bond issue of $5,000 to pay for the site.

There was a pleasant meeting at the Embroidery Club on Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. R. Taber as hostess. After the arrival of the guests two hours were spent in work and pleasant chatting. Mrs. Taber with the assistance of Miss Virginia Niernsee and Miss Lula Peterkin served ice cream and cake followed by dainty cups of coffee. Those present were Mesdames C. L. Browne, Le Roy Williams, A. J. Evans, C. T. O'Ferral, J. A. Wilson, Misses Ethel Fitzgerald, Lula Peterkin and Virginia Niernsee.

Mr. Anderson, the Coast Line's superintendent of roadway, was here Thursday looking into the matter of building a better crossing at Cleveland street. At present the crossing is not wide enough for two wagons to pass over at the same time and in the absence of a pathway pedestrians are compelled to use the drive way. Mr. Anderson promised that work would begin on the crossing at once. It will be built up to the width of the street with footways on both sides.

Second Primary.

The second primary election for the nomination of a Mayor and six aldermen to serve the town for the next two years was held Friday. There were ten aldermen in the second race, Mr. W. T. Bethea being the only nominee in the first primary. Following is the result of the vote:

H. K. Cottingham	93
J. H. David	97
L. Edwards	114
E. T. Elliott	73
C. T. O'Ferral	118
E. R. Hamer	115
E. L. Moore	87
J. A. Nettles	54
M. A. Stubbs	86
C. L. Wheeler	106

Thus it will be seen that J. H. David, C. T. O'Ferral, E. R. Hamer, L. Edwards and C. L. Wheeler were elected.

L. C. Braddy Entertains.

On the night of the 2nd. of April, Mr. L. C. Braddy entertained his pastor and his brother Stewards of the M. E. Church. At an early hour the doors to his well appointed mansion were thrown open for his distinguished guests—men who stand for virtue, morality and piety, known and read of all men as people of God, men high-up in ecclesiastical affairs, exemplars for the erring to follow.

In his spacious dining room his mahogany table groaned under its load of all the good things that only Mr. Braddy can conceive of and provide for his guests. Here with bright faces and happy hearts were seated his pastor and his corps of Stewards consisting of Messrs. W. M. Hamer, E. L. Moore, W. J. Carter, W. T. Bethea, L. Cottingham, Dr. L. F. Johnson, Dr. B. M. Badger and T. W. Bethea.

Politics had no place in the Menu, but more weighty subjects engrossed their attention, while the sallies of wit flowing from their host was an incentive that gave greater zest to the enjoyment of

of the feast. The leave taking was cordial and many expressions of good will were vouchsafed to their kind hearted host by his departing guests. —M.

WHY HIGH ART CLOTHING IS FAMOUS.

Back of the popularity of High Art Clothing, back of its choice by the particular men of this community, back of the satisfaction which it invariably gives, is the most artful handwork.

The famous High Art front is so skillfully constructed that a well-setting, shape-retaining coat is assured;

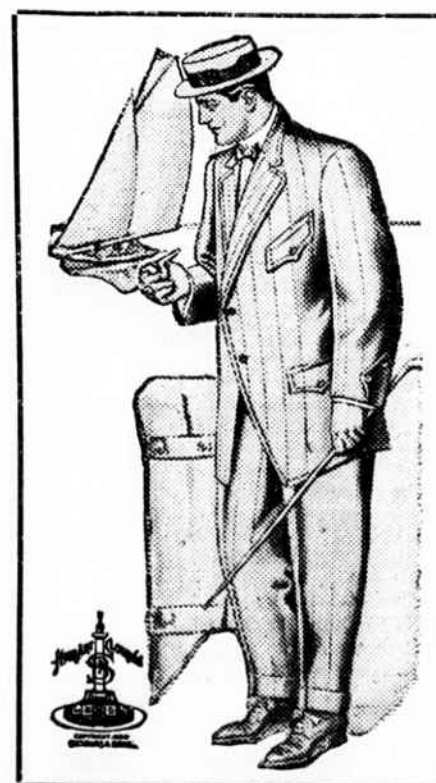

The famous High Art collar hugs the neck closely. The famous High Art lapels, with long, soft rolls, lie flat on the chest;

The famous High Art shoulder sits high, giving that full chested appearance, and made in such a way as to hold its natural shape.

Indeed, every detail stamps High Art Clothing as artistically accurate, fulfilling the requirements of the most exacting to a marked degree, and bringing out the very best side of the wearer's personality.

The new Spring models include some ultra good things for young men---worth seeing!
